We, too, the class of 1960 leave a history that may in future years refresh our memory of the school days at Belle Fourche High School.

As we think back to our first year at high school we remember a class of 96. Fourteen of us had started in the first grade together. Thelma Ainsworth, Mariys Bach, Kenny Blythe, Janet Evans, Marianne Giacometto, Larry Helmer, Diana Hegge, Dale Holtry, JoAnn Jeremiason, Ray Kidd, Patti Mitchell, Connie Olmsted, Stanley Richards, and Lucille Shindoll.

Unknown and unnoticed --that's how we felt. But school work soon began and we became friends with our many new classmates. We had our class meetings and at election time we chose Jerry Wendt, president; Sandra Beardsley, vice president; Gary Herber, secretary, and Connie Olmsted, treasurer. As usual we participated in activities which brought us into the swing of things. We remember our basketball team as State 'A' champs and with the beginning of track season and warm weather we brought to a close our freshman year.

Memories of our sophomore year find us feeling a little bit bigger and better than the previous year. We did have a year's experience and we didn't feel out of place. We took on more responsibilities and activities, and found school to be a full time job. We held our class election and elected Delilah Niedert, president; Larry Pilster, vice president; Bill DeMaranville, secretary; and Virgil French, treasurer. As tradition we wrapped the 'B' for the Bronc Day celebration and as every class will remember it burned the brightest and best---even if it did fall down. Many of us felt the junior year coming on and looked to the big day.

How are juniors supposed to feel? It can't be expressed!!! We had reached and passed the halfway mark of our school career. We elected a staff of officers led by Stanley Richards, president; Bill DeMaranville, vice-president; Lucille Shindoll, secretary; and Delilah Niedert, treasurer.

We chose 'A Ready-Made Family' for the junior class play, which was given successfully three times. We sold magazines that broke all previous records. The proceeds from the drive went for the prom and banquet. As we look back we remember one night on a 'Southern Plantation' with the warm air stirring the ivy and magnolias, and a wonderful dance band for dancing and dreaming. We selected our class rings and commented on the originality to be the first class with black stones. Spring time came near and we were all ready for relaxation.

But the one year never to be forgotten is the senior year. Stanley Richards was elected to lead the entire student body. Class officers -- Bill DeMaranville, president; Connie Olmsted, vice-president, Elizabeth Tysdal, secretary, and Virgil French, treasurer.

We again worked on Bronc Day preparation and the results were royal. The senior class play, 'Double Door', was produced and considered a great success. We ordered senior class pictures and announcements in the midst of our planning for college and our future. Still this was Our year. Senior dress up day brought to our school a very dignified group and reminded us of our position.

Soon it will be time to send our yearbook to press, and each of us are thinking about graduation. The time draws near to walk down the aisle to receive our diplomas, which will be certificates of graduation, but they will also represent the hard work, hours of study, and the happy times we have known. We will be content with our diplomas and memories. Memories? Ah, yes, you understand, for you too were a student once at Belle Fourche High School.

Sounds to a junior, a typhoon of activity, intellectual and otherwise, often shut out the outside world and hit with lightning speed until he is gathered into the strange combination of not enough time and too much work.

Mounting tension found its outlet as the 1958 Homecoming Day enveloped Belle Fourche High School. The traditional coronation with the crowning of Roberta Hamby, Bronc Day Queen and Bill DeMaranville, Marshal ended with a rousing pep rally led by the 'A' Squad Cheerleaders.

Continuing with tradition the Homecoming Queen presented a winning football to the football captain, Bill DeMaranville. The football team knelt as she wished them luck.

During the half Roberta, assisted by the four attendants set fire to the 'B' which lighted the Bronc field for the band's half time drill.

Drama on the football field . . and that moment of suspense as the referee sees if the Broncs made that much needed first down.

Story of the Seasons

Heads - up ball handling and hustle attributed to the Broncs winning season in basketball and football.

Among the fifteen returning basketball lettermen were V. Olson, S. Richards, B. Geis, L. Arbuckle, W. Ward, G. Fladmoe, R. Vigoren, and T. Heinbaugh.

In the fall of 1959 Mr. Roth took a group of boys and made them into a team with seven returning lettermen.

Mr. Graslie was also confronted with the task of building a team from seven basketball lettermen with only one who started from the previous year - 15 wins - 9 losses.

As the season ended the Bronc Basketball team found themselves in fourth place in the conference and the football team ended the season with 2 wins, 5 losses and 1 tie.

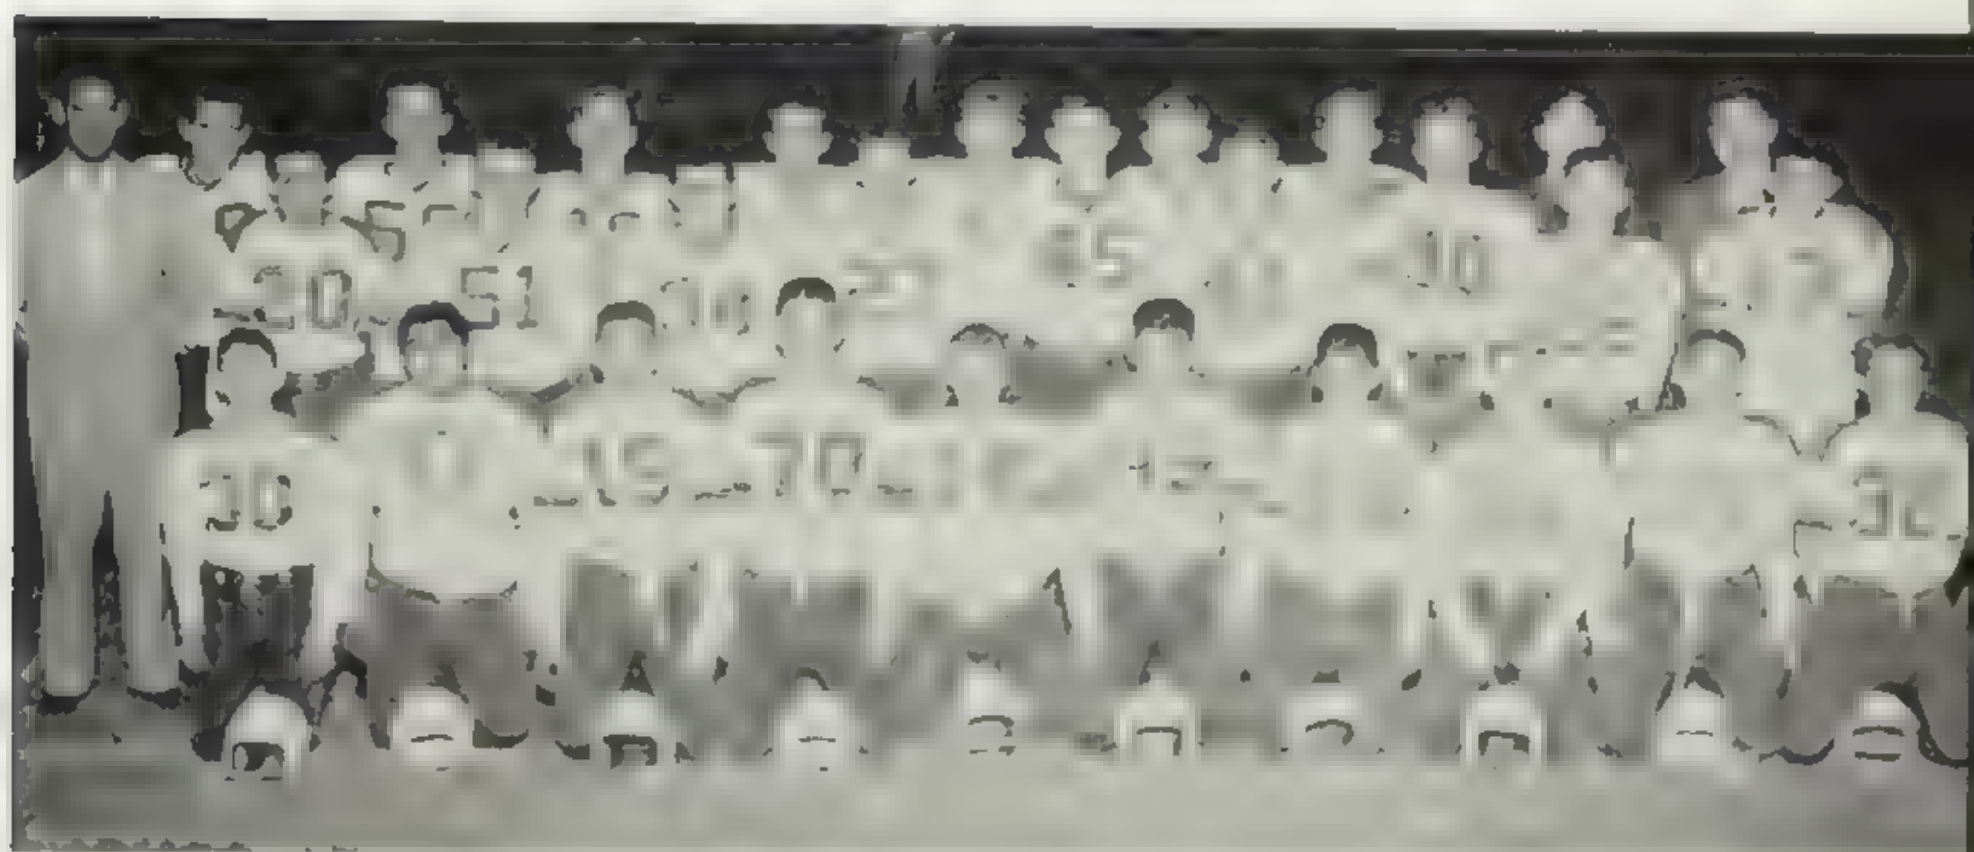

Nothing gives a team more determination than being called the underdog, and nothing will bring victory faster than determination. This seemed to be the Broncs secret of success.

Larry Helmer, Alvin Kuhl, and Doug Melum, president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer, respectively, work diligently in the science club. Their current problems are making projects for the science fair, and trying to fix their telescope.

Mu Alpha Theta

Superiority in scholastic ability in mathematics is the basis for the annual election of membership to the Math Club. To create and maintain increased interest in algebra, geometry and trigonometry beyond the knowledge of classroom work is the primary function. Tom Heinbaugh served as president.

Hi Times

Efforts of the newspaper staff to get the Hi Times printed monthly are aimed primarily at reporting current news and information to the student body and providing full coverage of major events throughout the year. Marlys Bach and Tom Heinbaugh, as co-editors, are assisted by Carol Loebe and Larry Lake.

Quill And Scroll

Each spring the Quill and Scroll takes time out to honor the students that excel in journalistic work with an initiation and banquet. Whether an editor, business manager or reporter for the Hi Times, all juniors and seniors are eligible for membership. Linda Lovell was elected president for the 59-60 year.

Library Club

Providing good books for knowledge and enjoyment are two jobs of the Library Club. Winning first prize in the Bronc Day parade with their float is just one more achievement of these young librarians. Connie Olmsted served as president.

AG Club

Promoting high ideals and true spirit in agriculture is the purpose of the AG. Club. Living in the heart of the west, the young men had an excellent opportunity to visit the livestock exchange and several ranches. Jerry Hoeys was president.

Thespians

Thespians are the wearers of the comedy and tragedy emblem of gold and blue. The fall of the year was outstanding with eleven returning members. Bronc Day saw them with a 1928 Packard in the parade. A talent show and several one act plays with this organization planning, coordinating, and supervising were presented. Ending the school year with initiation of outstanding students in dramatic works brings to a silent close a year filled with everlasting memories. Ardyth Gilbert acted as president.

Music

Band

Walking to a basketball or football game, we are greeted by loud strains of the pep band which contributes to the pep and enthusiasm of the fans. This is only part of the large 'A' band that performs for the enjoyment of music during the year.

The High School Band is not just a club, not just another subject to the member but a very special program that we all enjoy. The band had brought recognition not only to our high school but to our city by the two semi-annual concerts and the many exchange tours.

For the second consecutive year Gary Fladmoe represented our school at All State Band. His exceptional music ability has proved a credit to our school.

Administration

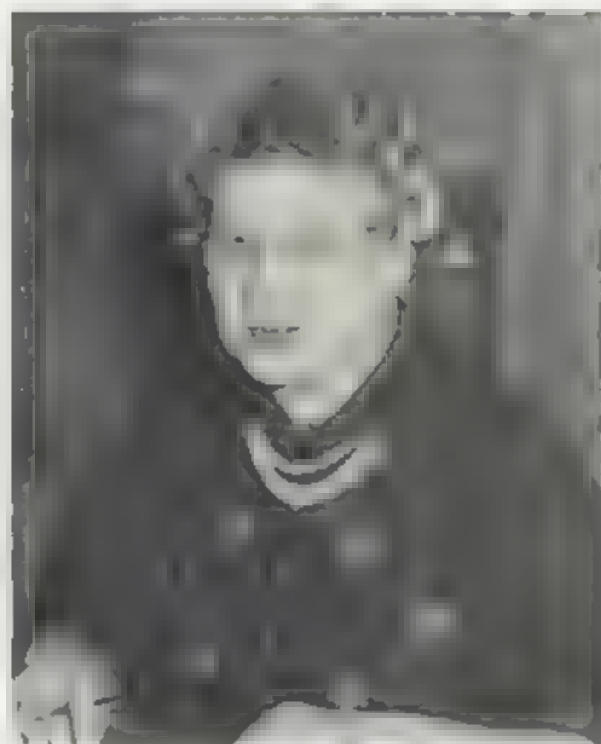

No period in American history has presented a greater challenge to young people than the one in which we are now living. Since becoming head of the Belle Fourche School System, A. H. Mortenson has shown this capability as an administrator, with the interests of the students foremost in his mind to lead them through this period.

Superintendent, A. H. Mortenson

Secretary, Cecile Larsen

Assistant to Secretary,
Mildred Schmidt

The importance of a well managed high school can not be stressed too much, as principal Clarence McGirr does his job efficiently.

The students have come to depend on the conscientious guidance as he counsels students with regard for their individual interests and abilities.

Brone Staff

The Brone Staff has enjoyed trying to give you an authentic record and a fond reminder of our days at Belle Fourche High School. This book is the culmination of months of hard labor, both physical and mental. It is the combination of staff members' efforts and cooperation on the part of staff, advisor, and student body.

Along with learning how to put a book together, came respect for the planning and forethought that goes into an annual. We experienced the joys of secrets unknown to any but the staff. We enjoyed seeing planned pictures develop into prints that were above and beyond our expectations. To present a good book has been our main concern.

We enjoyed the work. Our hope is that you enjoy the book.
